Class Teacher (Full-Time, September 2026 Start)

Salary: M1 – M6 (Inner London Allowance)

Our school was founded in 1847 to serve the local community. As a Church school, St Barnabas' has a long tradition of welcoming children from all religious faiths and those of none. We offer our children a high standard of education within a caring and secure environment where honesty, independence and trust are valued. We work closely with parents, governors and our local community to offer our pupils a safe and healthy environment where they can develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes to become lifelong learners and responsible citizens.

We are looking for an excellent practitioner who:

- Is able to inspire, motivate and challenge all learners
- Has excellent subject knowledge across the curriculum
- Has high expectations to enable pupils to learn exceptionally well in all areas of learning
- Has an excellent understanding of pupils' social and emotional wellbeing
- Is creative and adaptable within all aspects of teaching and learning
- Has proof of raising standards for all pupils
- Works effectively as part of a successful team
- Will promote the school's Christian ethos

We can offer:

- Enthusiastic, polite and well behaved pupils who are keen to learn
- A strong community spirit
- The chance to work with a dynamic and professional staff team
- Fantastic access to central London resources and events
- A range of Professional Development opportunities whilst leading a subject across the school
